The 2017 Gear Up accounting course will cover the new requirements and changes to our practices. All practitioners must keep up with important industry changes like “the preparation” — a new level of accounting service that can be issued without an accountant’s report. Ensure that you are staying ahead of changes like this and more with this course.

Gear Up Thomson Reuters Accounting Seminar Complete Course Description:

Topics include:

- Engagement letters, totally revised management representation letters and the dramatically reconstructed versions of the accountant's report
- Special purpose financial reporting frameworks
- Note disclosures: how much detail should there be?
- Practice continuation issues and how to transition ownership of an accounting practice
- Accounting in the construction industry
- Peer review: how should a firm prepare for it?
- How a peer reviewer evaluates your practice — plus a peer reviewer's checklist
- Statements on standards for accounting services
- Practice management: value billing versus hourly billing
- GAAP update:
 - Will fair value accounting replace historical cost?
 - When do variable interest entities require financial statement consolidation?
 - What are the new leasing standards, changes in revenue recognition concepts and tests for?
 - How is impairment determined and how does this impact disclosure on OCBOA statements?
