Gear Up Business Entities Seminar Description:

The 2017 Business Entities seminar focuses on the latest tax strategies for small business. This year's course covers an array of changes related to the recent PATH and Surface Transportation Reauthorization Act. Besides a complete analysis of various forms of business entity, this year's course will cover changes in return and extension deadlines, maximizing depreciation benefits under recent regulations, understanding the new variation in partnership interest rules, understanding IRS reasonable compensation calculation and a myriad of other business issues.
