Federal Tax Update—Business

Jennings-TaxSpeaker

Course Description: Many firms wish to attend an annual update that covers all of the changes that affect business entities in the current year, as well as detailed analyses of how the new tax laws will affect your business tax clients. Kept up to date through the day before the class, this class will include the latest modifications from Congress as well as other relevant IRS Notices, announcements, ruling and court cases for corporations, S corporations and entities taxed as partnerships and discussion of common compliance issues encountered during tax preparation season.

Upon completion of this course you will be able to advise clients about the latest C and S Corporation tax changes, as well as LLC changes and you will be able to explain the latest changes in tax law to your business clients, as well as differences in entity types. Participants will be able to provide clients with the characteristics, advantages, and disadvantages of LLC's and inform clients of the various characteristics and tax implications of the S corporation form of business entity. The course will include the latest modifications from Congress as well as other relevant IRS Notices, announcements, ruling and court cases for corporations, S corporations, and entities taxed as partnerships and discussion of common compliance issues encountered during this year's tax preparation season.

Speaker Bio: Mark Mirsky is a licensed CPA in Illinois with in-house corporate accounting experience, and has worked in both large and small accounting firms. He has a Master's in Taxation from University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign. In 2004 Mark co-founded ROI Business Services, LLC, where he leads the Taxation and Management Advisory Services. In 2018 he founded ROI CPE, LLC to provide quality education to the CPA industry. With a focus on partnerships, S-corporations, C-corporations, and multi-state taxation, Mark also provides assistance for business startups, the acquisition and disposition of businesses, international taxation, and real estate. Mark works with businesses and organizations across the country and around the world, including manufacturing/distribution, technology and web-based, and construction companies, as well as service firms and medical practices. He also works with individuals and tax planning. Mark's background includes working in the international tax group at one of the largest accounting firms in the world, and for two middle-market firms focusing on closely held businesses, serving as a firm-wide resource for partnership and multistate taxation. He currently is teaching for Taxspeaker around the country, a former instructor for other national seminar companies. Concentrations: Tax instruction, business consulting, multi-state and partnership taxation, international tax, S-corporations, startup businesses, tax planning, individual tax, accounting and assistance with structuring sales/acquisitions of businesses.
