Course Description: Introducing the most useful accounting course you'll ever attend: Preparations, Compilations, and Reviews! This ultra-practical course is full of up-to-date SSARS 26 material in addition to SSARS 21. Written and taught by experienced practitioners, we're giving you applicable, relevant guidance at every step, including dozens of example report, engagement, and client letters, as well as unofficial checklists. Together, we will walk through a rapid review of the latest SSARS and alerts, plus discussion of the requirements for prepared financial statements and disclaimers. Each session also includes a deep-dive into requirements for preparations or compilations with example letters and reports. All of this is framed in real-life implementation tips and examples.
